Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories. How much money is now allocated in the subject area?

The library has both new and historic holdings in relevant subject categories. The allotment for the purchase of monographs and media for Languages for 2020-21 is approximately $6,000.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

There are no essential journals noted in the Faculty Questionnaire.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

With regard to the two films requested: Libertador will be purchased on Kanopy. Palo Malo is available for free at <https://tubitv.com/movies/468363/bad-hair-pelo-malo?start=true>

Existing funds will be used for access to Libertador on Kanopy. No other new resources are required to support this course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No information mastery sessions will be required for students in this course.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new costs outside the annual allocation to Languages for the acquisition of library materials to support this course.
